Welcome Faithfluencer

I'm so glad you decided to take this journey. The Holy Spirit led me to create this map as a tool to guide you through a process to find and create fulfillment in your life. I began this process in 2018, at a point in my life where I realized all the things I thought mattered, left me feeling unfulfilled. The job, the accolades, traveling, etc. Sometimes, when we think about fulfillment in life, it can be very materialistic. However, fulfillment starts from within, when you allow the Holy Spirit to fill and dwell in you. Then, that Spirit flows from you to fuel and lead you in everything you do. This map was developed to help you on a journey to identify who you are, what you want and how it aligns with what God has called you to do. It's filled with reflective questions, prompts, scriptures, and more to help you along your journey to fulfillment.

I pray that as you take this journey, the Holy Spirit reveals to you who you are in the eyes of God, who God has called you to be, and what He has created you to do. I pray you receive the wisdom and strategy to plan and carry out a life of fulfillment.

A Prayer for my Goals

Goal Setting and Prioritizing:

After you have heard from God regarding the goals you need to accomplish list them below. Allow the Holy Spirit to guide you. The goal categories are listed in order of importance. Prioritizing your goals as listed below will help you focus on what is most important. God created order and structure so that we live a healthy life that is centered on our relationship with Christ.

When we operate out of God's order we can become overwhelmed and burnt out. Pay attention to your mind, physical body, and spirit as you work to accomplish your goals. If you ever begin to feel bogged down, identify where you need to make adjustments to realign with God's plan for you. Remember, Matthew 11:30 says, "For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

Matthew 25:14-20 NKJV

For the kingdom of heaven is like a man traveling to a far country, who called his own servants and delivered his goods to them. And to one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, to each according to his own ability; and immediately he went on a journey. Then he who had received the five talents went and traded with them, and made another five talents. And likewise he who had received two gained two more also. But he who had received one went and dug in the ground, and hid his lord's money. After a long time the lord of those servants came and settled accounts with them. "So he who had received five talents came and brought five other talents, saying, 'Lord, you delivered to me five talents; look, I have gained five more talents besides them.' His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you were faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.' He also who had received two talents came and said, 'Lord, you delivered to me two talents; look, I have gained two more talents besides them.' His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.' "Then he who had received the one talent came and said, 'Lord, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you have not sown, and gathering where you have not scattered seed. And I was afraid, and went and hid your talent in the ground. Look, there you have what is yours.' "But his lord answered and said to him, 'You wicked and lazy servant, you knew that I reap where I have not sown, and gather where I have not scattered seed. So you ought to have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming I would have received back my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to him who has ten talents. 'For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away. And cast the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'
